MISSIONARY BIOGRAPHY OF JIM ELLIOT

Pastor W.Manglem, Missionary, Serou. Kakching District.

Mr. Jim was born in Portland Oregon on Oct,8,1927, He was the third child of his parent. He had 2 older brother and a younger sister,His father was an evangelical and` mother a CHIROPOLITAN. His father read the Bible to them and prays for them everyday.At 6 years old he told his Mother that he was saved, at 14 years he attended Benson Polytechnic High School,he was very active in extra-curricular for he love out door life. He took long hikes.canoeing and often went camping with his friends.

In 1945 Jim Graduated from high school and attended Wheaton College.In 1948 he started keeping a journal of his daily thoughts and meditations. One of his famous quote is “ He is no fool twho gives what he cannot keepto gain what he cannot lose”.He maor in Greek because he wanted to be a Bible translator.He ha s a routine of studying prayer life.Bible study and Physical exercise.It was at this time he met Elizabeth,but it would be another five years before they got married in the Mission field. His Parents want himto minister in US,but he decidedto go oversea because he feel that was the greatest need.

In 1948 he attended Student Missionary Convention at Illinois University,it was here he feel the call to be a missionary to the American jungles to work eith the tribals community. He wrote to Elizabeth “ I am at ease about saying that working among the tribals is the general direction of my missionary purpose. He graduated with Honours from wheaton College in 1949.

After graduation he went back home, in his free time he read a lot of Missionary biography and his favourite was Amy Carmichaels. In the summer of 1950 he went to Camp Wycliffe to study Linguistic for 10 weeks,there he met a man who work with the Quichuas of Ecuador who told hm about the Auca Indians.Jim prayed for 10 days to see if there is God mission for him.He wrote in his Journal “ I dare not stay home while Quichuas perish.

Gospel Tangkou March 2020

He began his preparatioin to go to Ecuador in 1951,he travelled to talk to people about the unreached Indians. He applied for visa and sought advice tfrom Dr. Tidmarsh. In October 1952 he met Elizabeth and she said she would be going to Ecuador for Missions as well.After waiting and preparing for two yearsJim vision for serving the unreached tribe was being realized. Jim not only had to learn Spanish but also the quichuas Indian language.Jim went to ythe interior and saw the living conditions of the Indians.Life was very difficult and fragile. Jim longed to share the hope of the gospelwith them.In Jan,1954 he and Elizabeth were engaged and got married on Oct,8 1954.

Jim work consisted of building,teaching, instrucing young Indians to take over the church, translation of the Bibleand healing ministry. In Sept,1955 the Missionaries spotted the firstAuca Indians and in order to established contact with them they dropped gifts and when the INDIANS accepted their gift the Missonaries flew lower and shouted “We like you, we are your friends”, on 3rd Jan,1956 the Missionaries planned to to bring the word of God to the unreached Auca Indians. They are Jim Elliots, Peter Fleming, Ed Mc Cully Nate saint and Roger Youdirian.

Certainly the Missionaries wre aware of the the dangers as the Auca were described as fierce people.But they wre convinced that no risks was too great for to take for God Jim solemnly vowed that he was ready to die for the slvation of the Aucas, they sabg hymnsand pray before departing. They contact their wives at4:30 pm. The telephone call never came,a search party from the US army found five daed bodies of the Missionaries. The Auca Indians had speared them to death and ripped their bodies.Their wives received the News as a quote states “The Lord has closed our hearts to grief and hysteria and filled it with His perfect peace. The News of the Martyrs shocked the world.The beautiful thing that came out of the Martyrs live was that many young people committed to serve as Missionaries.

Elizabeth and her daughter Valerie continued working with the Quichua Indians.These martyrs did not die in vain,far more Auca Indians were converted to christianity.
