Bible in Russia Bang Chi Bang In Ana Gen Ei?

Does the Bible say anything about Russia in relation to the end times?

Tunin, amah aki siamtan mei thei, (justify) hinanleh zawng, UN member gam 193 lah a gam 141 khat in nasatah in UN General Assembly ah, Ukraine invasion a bawl mawpaih ta uhi. Tam gam 141 khat ten Ukraine sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity nam det (sealed) thah kit uhi. Gam li (4) ten, Four (4) countries (i) Democratic People’s Republic of Korea (North Korea), (ii) Eritrea (iii) Belarus (iv) Syrian Arab Republic (Syria), Vladimir Putin in Ukraine invasion a bawl support uhi.

Now, today, with Russia back in the global and local news in a big way because of Vladimir Putin’s invasion of Ukraine on 25th February-2022, and still continue, many people including Christians are wondering if recent events in eastern Europe have anything to do with end-times prophecy in the Holy Scriptures—and, if so, how? Much of the discussion has to do with an ancient prophecy from Ezekiel: “The word of the LORD came to me: ‘Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshek and Tubal; prophesy against him and say: “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I Am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshek and Tubal” (Ezekiel 38:1–3). The identities of “Gog,” “Magog,” “Meshek,” and “Tubal” are the key to fully understanding the prophecy. Is not it?

Gog is a person. Whoever Gog is, he is from the land of Magog and is the leader of Tubal and Meshek (some Bible translations add “Rosh” to the list) and a confederacy of other nations: Persia, Cush, Put, Gomer, and Beth Togarmah (Ezekiel 38:5–6). And, whoever he is, he will have plans to “attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people,” viz, Israel (Ezekiel 38: 11,14 &18). But, regardless of Gog's plans, the LORD GOD is against him and will defeat him soundly (Ezekiel 38:4,19–23; 39:3–5).

Magog is a land “in the far north,” from Israel’s point of view (Ezekiel 38:15; 39:2). Most Bible commentators interpret “Magog” as Russia—and, indeed, Russia is straight north of Israel, all the way up to the Arctic Circle. According to this view, “Rosh” is a reference to Russia, “Meshek” is either Moscow or the people north of the Black Sea (the area of southern Russia and Ukraine), and “Tubal,” which is always listed with Meshek in the Holy Scripture, is identified as a city in Siberia or an area in central Turkey.

Others see “Magog” as a general term used in Ezekiel’s day to identify barbarians living near the Black and Caspian Seas. Regardless of the exact locations of Magog, Tubal, and Meshek, there is no doubt that the general area includes portions of Russia and the former Soviet Union, and possibly some Arab countries. There is no doubt about it.

So, yes, the Bible does mention Russia, although not by that name, in connection with the end times. Ezekiel chapter 38 &39 definitely refer to a nation coming from northern Asia to attack Israel.

After the Cold War, Russia lost its superpower status, making the fulfillment of Ezekiel’s prophecy seem unlikely in some people’s eyes. However, recent events have shown that Russia is gaining strength day by day, and many believe that the invasion of Ukraine is just a first step in Russia’s plan to restore its dominance in that hemisphere. It is also interesting to note that, in the Soviet era, Moscow was solidly aligned with several Muslim countries in opposition to Israel. Since the breakup of the Soviet Union, Russia has continued to make overtures to the Muslim world. This is fact that we can not deny.

According to the Bible, there will come a time when Russia, in alliance with several other countries, will amass a huge army against Israel, with a view to plunder the Jews’ land. The nations aligned with Russia for this military endeavour are Persia (modern-day Iran), Put (modern-day Libya), Cush (modern-day Sudan), Gomer (part of modern-day Turkey), and Beth Togarmah (modern-day Armenia). Most of these nations are currently militant Islamic states with an express hatred of Israel. Prophet Ezekiel says that, when the aggressors move against Israel, a few other nations (“Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish”) will remonstrate, as will “all her villages”—possibly colonies (Ezekiel 38:13). Sheba and Dedan are associated with areas of northern Africa. Tarshish could be a reference to Spain (which colonized much of South America), Britain (which colonized the United States), or somewhere in eastern Africa. The objections to Magog’s aggression will fall on deaf ears, however, and the invasion will continue.

Some Bible commentators believe that, this war (invasion of Ukraine by Russia) is one of the events leading up to beginning of the 7 years tribulation. Others believe it will occur close to the midpoint of the 7 years tribulation, since Israel will be “dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates” (Ezekiel 38:11)—in other words, Israel will feel secure at that time, possibly because of the covenant they have signed with the Anti-Christ (Daniel 9:27). Either way, this battle is distinct from the Battle of Armageddon, which occurs at the end of the 7 years tribulation.

GOD promises to destroy Gog’s army: “I will execute judgment on him with plague and bloodshed; I will pour down torrents of rain, hailstones and burning sulfur on him and on his troops and on the many nations with him” (Ezekiel 38:22). The bodies of the fallen army of Magog will be buried, but it will take over seven months to complete the macabre task (Ezekiel 39:12,14). This supernatural judgment will have the effect of preserving Israel and turning many hearts to GOD: “And so I will show My greatness and My holiness, and I will make Myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I Am the LORD” (Ezekiel 38:23). Many will be saved during the tribulation (Revelation 7:14-17), and the fulfillment of Ezekiel 38 & 39 will be one means by which GOD will bring people to a knowledge of Himself.

There is much we do not know for certain about Ezekiel’s prophecy, including the timing of these events. We don’t know. However, it is clear that Russia will be involved and will in fact lead an end-times league of nations to seize Israel’s land. The Prophet Ezekiel comforts Israel in much the same way as Moses had centuries ago: “The LORD your GOD is the one who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory” (Deuteronomy 20:4).

Therefore, whatever it is, and whatever people or print media and electronic media including social media says, we can truly confirmed that we are all living in the end times or last days. All these happenings are the fulfilment of what our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ said in Matthew chapter 24. And also the precursors of things to happen before Jesus Christ's return.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus, let us stand firm in true faith and righteousness and truthfulness of Jesus Christ and be always ready in spirit to receive the LORD in the cloud whatsoever. In His precious name. Amen.
